Dear Mitch,

The deficiencies in Defendants' responses to Plaintiffs' Requests for Admissions ("RFAs") are that they have failed to either admit or deny RFAs 1-27, 39-41, 48-64, 72-73 and 92-97, as Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a)(4) requires. We doubt that these deficiencies come as a surprise to Defendants. Given that Defendants use essentially identical boilerplate language for each of their responses to RFAs 1-27, and for each of their responses to the other RFAs identified above, we do not believe the issues for our meet-and-confer are particularly complex.

Accordingly, please let us know your availability for a call this afternoon to discuss. If you are unavailable this afternoon, perhaps Mr. Baloul or Mr. Alonzo, both of whom are partners in your firm who work on this matter, can handle the call.

Kind regards.

Steve

Dear Steve,

Please send us your list of asserted “deficiencies” so we are in a position to have a meaningful meet-and-confer. Once we have your list, and given our schedule today, we will propose a time for a meet-and-confer either late this afternoon or after tomorrow’s deposition.

Regards,

Mitch

Dear Mitch,

Please let us know some times tomorrow afternoon when you are available to meet and confer with us concerning deficiencies in Defendants’ responses and objections to Plaintiffs’ requests for admissions.

Many thanks.

Steve
